Communicative Approach

The development of language learning or teaching from form-based to a meaning-based approach, the move towards the eclectic approach from a rigid method, the shift from teacher-centred to learner-centred classes, are all subsumed under the broad term communicative approach. The communicative approach is the recent and latest approach of teaching English. This approach lays a great emphasis on the use of language. It enables the students to communicate his ideas in a better way. The socio linguists Dell Hymens propagated this approach. According to him the purpose of teaching language is the communicative competence. The following materials are used in this approach; different functions such as requesting, informing, expressing likes and dislikes; notions of time, location and duration etc.; using language to perform different tasks such as solving puzzles, dramatization, role play etc. Teachers have known that their aim is to get students communicating successfully outside the classroom.

Communicative competence not only applies the grammatical rules of a language in order to form a grammatically correct sentence, but also to know when and where to use these sentences- in other words, to use them appropriately.

Characteristics of the Communicative Approach:-

The communicative approach aim to make all the learner attain communicative competence i.e. use language accurately and appropriately. The prime focus is on learner and teacher is just a facilitator. It is based upon need analysis and planning to prepare communicative curricular and syllabuses. It is based upon the concept of how language is used and what is functional utility of language. It lays less stress on grammar and emphasis on language in use rather than language as structure. It gives emphasis on the semantic objective of the language which means the meaning of language in real life situation and contexts. The skills of speaking and writing are included in communicative approach. It provides the communicative opportunities where the students may be able to communicate their ideas through dialogue, discussion, debate, literary and cultural activities of the schools.

Demerits of communicative Approach:-

1. This approach ignores grammar and structures.
2. It is not properly and scientifically developed as yet.
3. It is a new approach and it is to be used and tested in our schools for language teaching.
4. Practical utility of this approach is yet to be confirmed.
5. Trained teachers are not available in this approach to teach English language.
6. Students don't get proper environment for communication.

In communicative approach techniques such as information gap tasks are used. An information gap occurs in a situation where one person knows something which other person do not. Information gap task used in the classroom are language games, role play, retrieving text order etc. In this approach the teacher is no longer regarded as sole arbiter and controller of what goes in the language classroom. The independent status of learner is fully accepted. The communicative approach has implications for the classroom teacher in terms of their way of teaching and attitude. Thus communicative approach can be the effective way of developing language competence among learners.
